

Phase 2 Completion Document Overview: This document summarizes all actions performed in Phase 2, covering data ingestion setup, schema application, market and macro data backfill, incremental updates, FX integration, validation, and documentation. Key Actions: - PostgreSQL setup and schema application - Historical backfill for ETF and FX tickers - FRED macro series ingestion - Incremental update routines for market and macro data - Data validation and sanity checks - Documentation of data layer architecture Status: Phase 2 Completed